What Other Benefits do I get?

Grace Period

Single Premium Policy: Not Applicable

LPPT and Regular Premium Policy:

A grace period of 30 days from the premium due date will be allowed for payment of yearly and half yearly premiums and 15 days for monthly premiums. The policy will remain in-force during the grace period. If any premium remains unpaid at the end of the grace period, the policy shall lapse or become paid-up. In case of death of the Life Assured during grace period, the outstanding due premiums, if any, till the next Policy anniversary, as on the date of death shall be deducted from the benefits payable under the Policy.

Lapse

Single Premium Policy: Not Applicable

LPPT and Regular Premium Policy:

If first full policy year's premium has not been paid, the policy shall lapse without acquiring paid-up benefits after the expiry of grace period from the date of first unpaid premium. All the benefits under the policy shall cease and no benefit shall be payable under the Policy.

Reduced Paid-up Value

Single Premium Policy: Not Applicable

LPPT and Regular Premium Policy:

After completion of first policy year, the policy acquires Reduced paid up value only if at least first full policy year premium(s) has been paid and thereafter premiums are not paid within the grace period, the policy shall continue as paid-up policy till maturity.

Death benefit under the paid-up policy: The death benefit is payable as a lump sum to the nominee or legal heir of the Life Assured. On death of the Life Assured during the policy term, paid-up sum assured on death will be payable and policy will terminate.

Paid-up Sum Assured on death = {Sum Assured on Death* (The total period for which premiums have already been paid / The maximum period for which premiums were originally payable)} This benefit shall be subject to a minimum of 105% of Total Premium Paid[#] up to the date of death.

Maturity benefit under the paid-up policy: The maturity benefit is payable as a lump sum to the policy holder. If the Life Assured survives till the end of the policy term the paid-up sum assured on maturity is payable as a lump sum.

Paid-up Sum Assured on maturity = Maturity Benefit (100% of total premiums originally payable under the policy, excluding any extra premium, any rider premium and taxes) * (The total period for which premiums have already been paid / The maximum period for which premiums were originally payable).

The policyholder can surrender the paid-up policy at any time during the policy term.

Revival

In case your policy has lapsed or is in paid up status, you can start enjoying the full benefits of the policy, by reviving it. Please send a request to us and ask for revival of your policy.

The policy may be revived within a period of five consecutive complete years from the date of first unpaid premium and before the date of maturity. The revival will be considered on receipt of application from the policyholder along with the proof of continued insurability of Life Assured and on payment of all overdue premiums with interest. The revival of the policy will be subject to the board approved underwriting policy of the company.

The interest rate for revival is determined using 10 year government security (G-Sec) plus 2%. The 10 year government security (G-Sec) will be considered as on 1st April of each of the Financial Year and it will be compounding on a half-yearly basis. The 10 year benchmark G-Sec rate as on 1st April 2024 is 7.11%. The interest rate would be rounded to nearest multiple of 25 basis points and interest amount would be rounded nearest to ₹1. The interest rate applicable for FY 2024-25 is 9.00% p.a. compounded semi-annually. Any change in the basis for determining interest rate for revival shall be made subject to prior approval of the Authority.

Surrender Benefit

Single Premium policies can be surrendered at any time during the policy term.

LPPT and Regular Premium Policy:

The policyholder can surrender the in-force policy or paid-up policy at any time during policy term, provided, one full year's premiums has been paid. On payment of Surrender Value the policy will be terminated.

The surrender value payable will be higher of Guaranteed Surrender value (GSV) and Special Surrender Value (SSV).

The policy acquires Guaranteed Surrender Value only if at least two consecutive years' premiums has been paid.

The Guaranteed Surrender Value is equal to GSV factors multiplied by the Total premiums paid[#]. The GSV factors will depend on the policy year during which the surrender request is made and the policy term.

The Special Surrender Value (SSV) become payable after completion of first policy year provided one full policy year's premium(s) has been received.

The SSV factors and thus the Special Surrender Value (SSV) are not guaranteed and will be reviewed annually based on the prevailing yield on 10 Year G-Sec and underlying experience, However, any change in methodology used to determine the Special Surrender Value (SSV) Factors shall be subject to prior appropriate approval in accordance with IRDAI Regulations. For more details on surrender benefit, please refer the policy document.

Prohibition of Rebates

Section 41 of the Insurance Act 1938, as amended from time to time, states:

- a) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectus or tables of the insurer.
- b) Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be liable for a penalty which may extend to ten lakh rupees.

Non-Disclosure

Extract of Section 45 of Insurance Act 1938, as amended from time to time, states:

No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy. A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of the policy, on the ground of fraud or on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued. The insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured, the grounds and materials on which such decision is based.

No insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement or suppression are within the knowledge of the insurer. In case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the policyholder is not alive.

In case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the grounds of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.

For complete details of the section and the definition of 'date of policy', please refer Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time.
