Extract of the Existing FEMA rules governing settlement of claims
(RBI-A.P.DIR series Circular No.72 dated 17th Jan 2003)

5. Settlement of claims

- i. The basic rule for settlement of claims on rupee life insurance policies in favor of claimants resident outside India is that payments in foreign currency will be permitted only in proportion in which the amount of premia paid in foreign currency in relation to the total premia payable.
- ii. Non-resident beneficiaries of insurance claims/maturity/surrender value settled in foreign currency may be permitted to credit the same to NRE/FCNR account, if they so desire.
- iii. Resident beneficiaries of insurance claims/maturity/surrender values settled in foreign currency may be permitted to credit the same to RFC accounts, if they so desire.
- iv. Claims / maturity proceeds/surrender value in respect of rupee life insurance policies issued to non-resident Indians for which premia have been collected in non repatriable rupees may be paid only in rupees by credit to NRO account of the beneficiary. This would also apply in cases of death claims being settled in favor of non-resident assignees / nominees.
